The United States Is On Fire

Riots, looting, beatings... they're everywhere right now as a result of George Floyd's arrest. Here are 10 tips for riot escape and evasion that could help keep you and your family safe.

1. Forewarned Is Forearmed

Gather information about the riot and what's going on in your area so you'll have advanced warning of danger.

- A local news app and a police scanner are great tools for gathering intel.
- Do a security assessment of your home.

2. Don't Count On The Cavalry Coming

You are the only one who can protect you and your family. NOBODY is coming to save you.

3. Don't BE THERE

If a riot is coming, you do NOT want to be home, no matter how much you want to protect your property. However, sometimes you'll be caught by surprise, either in your home, on the road, walking on foot, etc.

AT HOME:

4. Camouflage Your Home

Don't be a chest-thumper. In battle, we don't want to stand out. Do NOT put up a "looters will be shot" sign. Consider putting up signs that indicate sympathy for the rioters.

5. Harden Your Home

Remember that breaking glass is a big threat. Keep the curtains drawn, keep the doors locked, and be vigilant.

6. Have An Escape Plan

Have your car "combat parked," which means backed into the space, ready to go.

- Have your BOB ready to go.
- Have a rally plan for your family.

IN YOUR VEHICLE:

7. Drive Defensively

Window film can protect your windows but hinders you in escaping the vehicle.

- Scan constantly, being ready for instant ambushes. Avoid middle lanes.
- Leave enough room to go around obstacles.
- Be ready to U-turn if you see stopped traffic or hear beeping horns.

8. If Stopped, Drive OFFENSIVELY

If you're in a death trap, you MUST escape.

- Don't floor it. Drive slowly; people will move.
- Firing a weapon gives you only 3-5 seconds!

DEFENSE:

9. Be SMARTLY Armed

Have extra ammo; keep weapons concealed.

- Consider less-lethal options.
- Be prepared for things to get serious and remember that force could backfire on you.

10. No, You CAN'T Defeat A Mob!

Rioters use a variety of weapons.

- Your best defense is to blend in.
